

ACCEOLAIRE

1982

In the echoing hallways

They gather whispering

The fears of days but chorusing

The best of times . . .

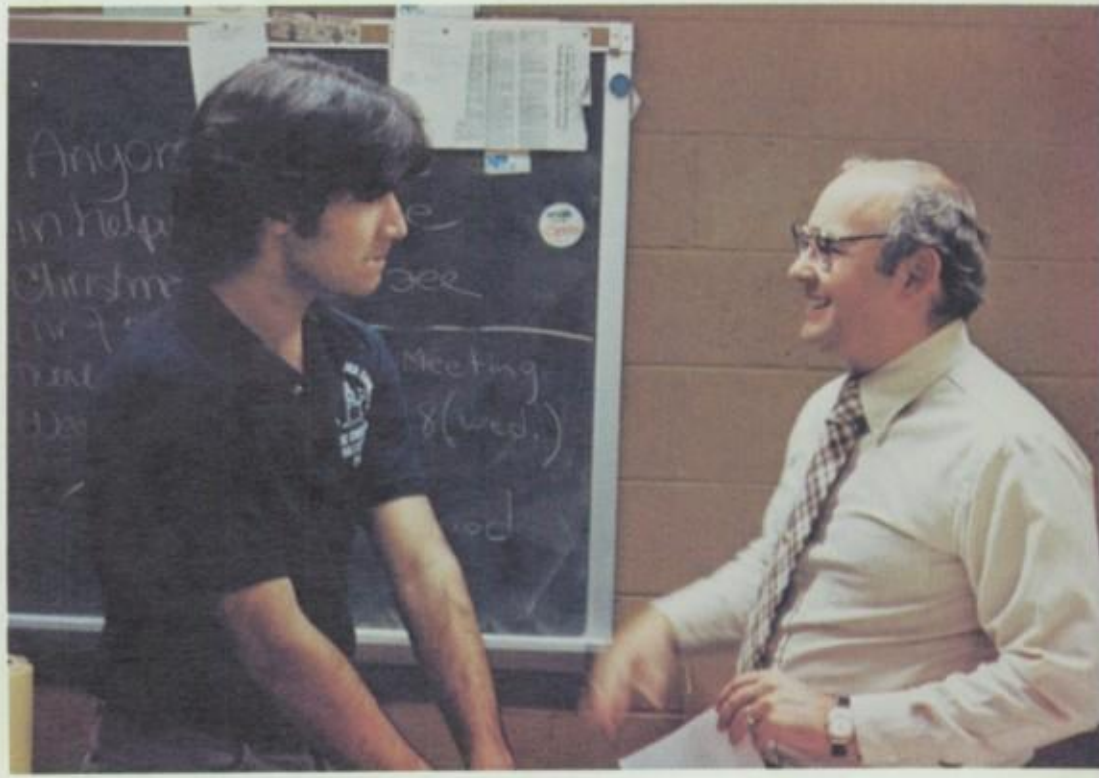

-Bernadette Rappold

NORTH PENN HIGH SCHOOL

LANSDALE, PENNSYLVANIA
VOLUME XXVII 1982

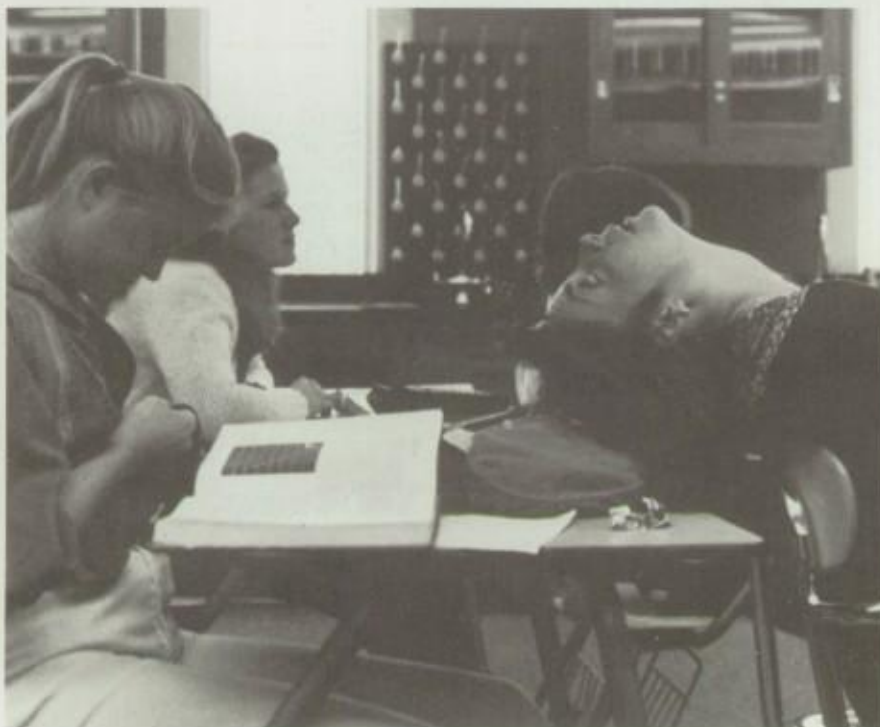

A Moment in Time

A leaf flutters away on the breeze
 Only to drop soundlessly
 To the ground.
 A raindrop Shatters the surface of A murky puddle
 From somewhere
 A child cries,
 A car door slams,
 Careless laughter rings out shrilly,
 Briefly
 The trees tremble
 With the passing whim of
 The wind;
 The wind that erases
 The haunting echo of Our footsteps.
 So elusive,
 So fleeting these Moments.

I remember the days of sunshine and bliss.
We shared the magic of Carefree companionship,
Living under the spell
Of being young.

TERMA
LA BOUCH

FUH WHA?
FUH DRUGSSS.

We're living the days of sunshine and bliss.
In each moment we hold
The key
To making everyday
The best of times.

March 1978

When the day is done and all of Life vanished,
The halls echo with nothing.
Spirits of the day return,
But find only silence.
The memories gone from the air,
But not from Life itself.
For each corner and crack secrets these memories and cherishes them.
As we do.
For they will never live again on this earth,
Except in our minds.
Each happy moment gently,
But securely carpeted through our minds.
Carved forever in the recesses of our mind.
To be recalled at some future time
For these good times will far outshine the worst.

ACCOLADE STAFF '82

For the twenty-seventh year North Penn High School managed to include another edition to its long line of quality yearbooks. Working diligently and methodically the cadre of nine seniors and three juniors assembled the elements of this year's offering. The group met every day during homeroom period with Advisor Frank Muccari although most of the labor was performed independently at home and other locations. Apportioning time within busy schedules to create and market one of the nation's leading annuals, is no trivial task. Featured here are some of the workers who made this volume possible. The complete list of contributors is also included.

REMEMBER

Christina Rossetti, 1830 — 1894

Remember me when I am gone away
When you can no more hold me by the hand,
Nor I half turn to go, yet turning stay.
Remember me when no more, day by day,
You tell me of the future that you planned.

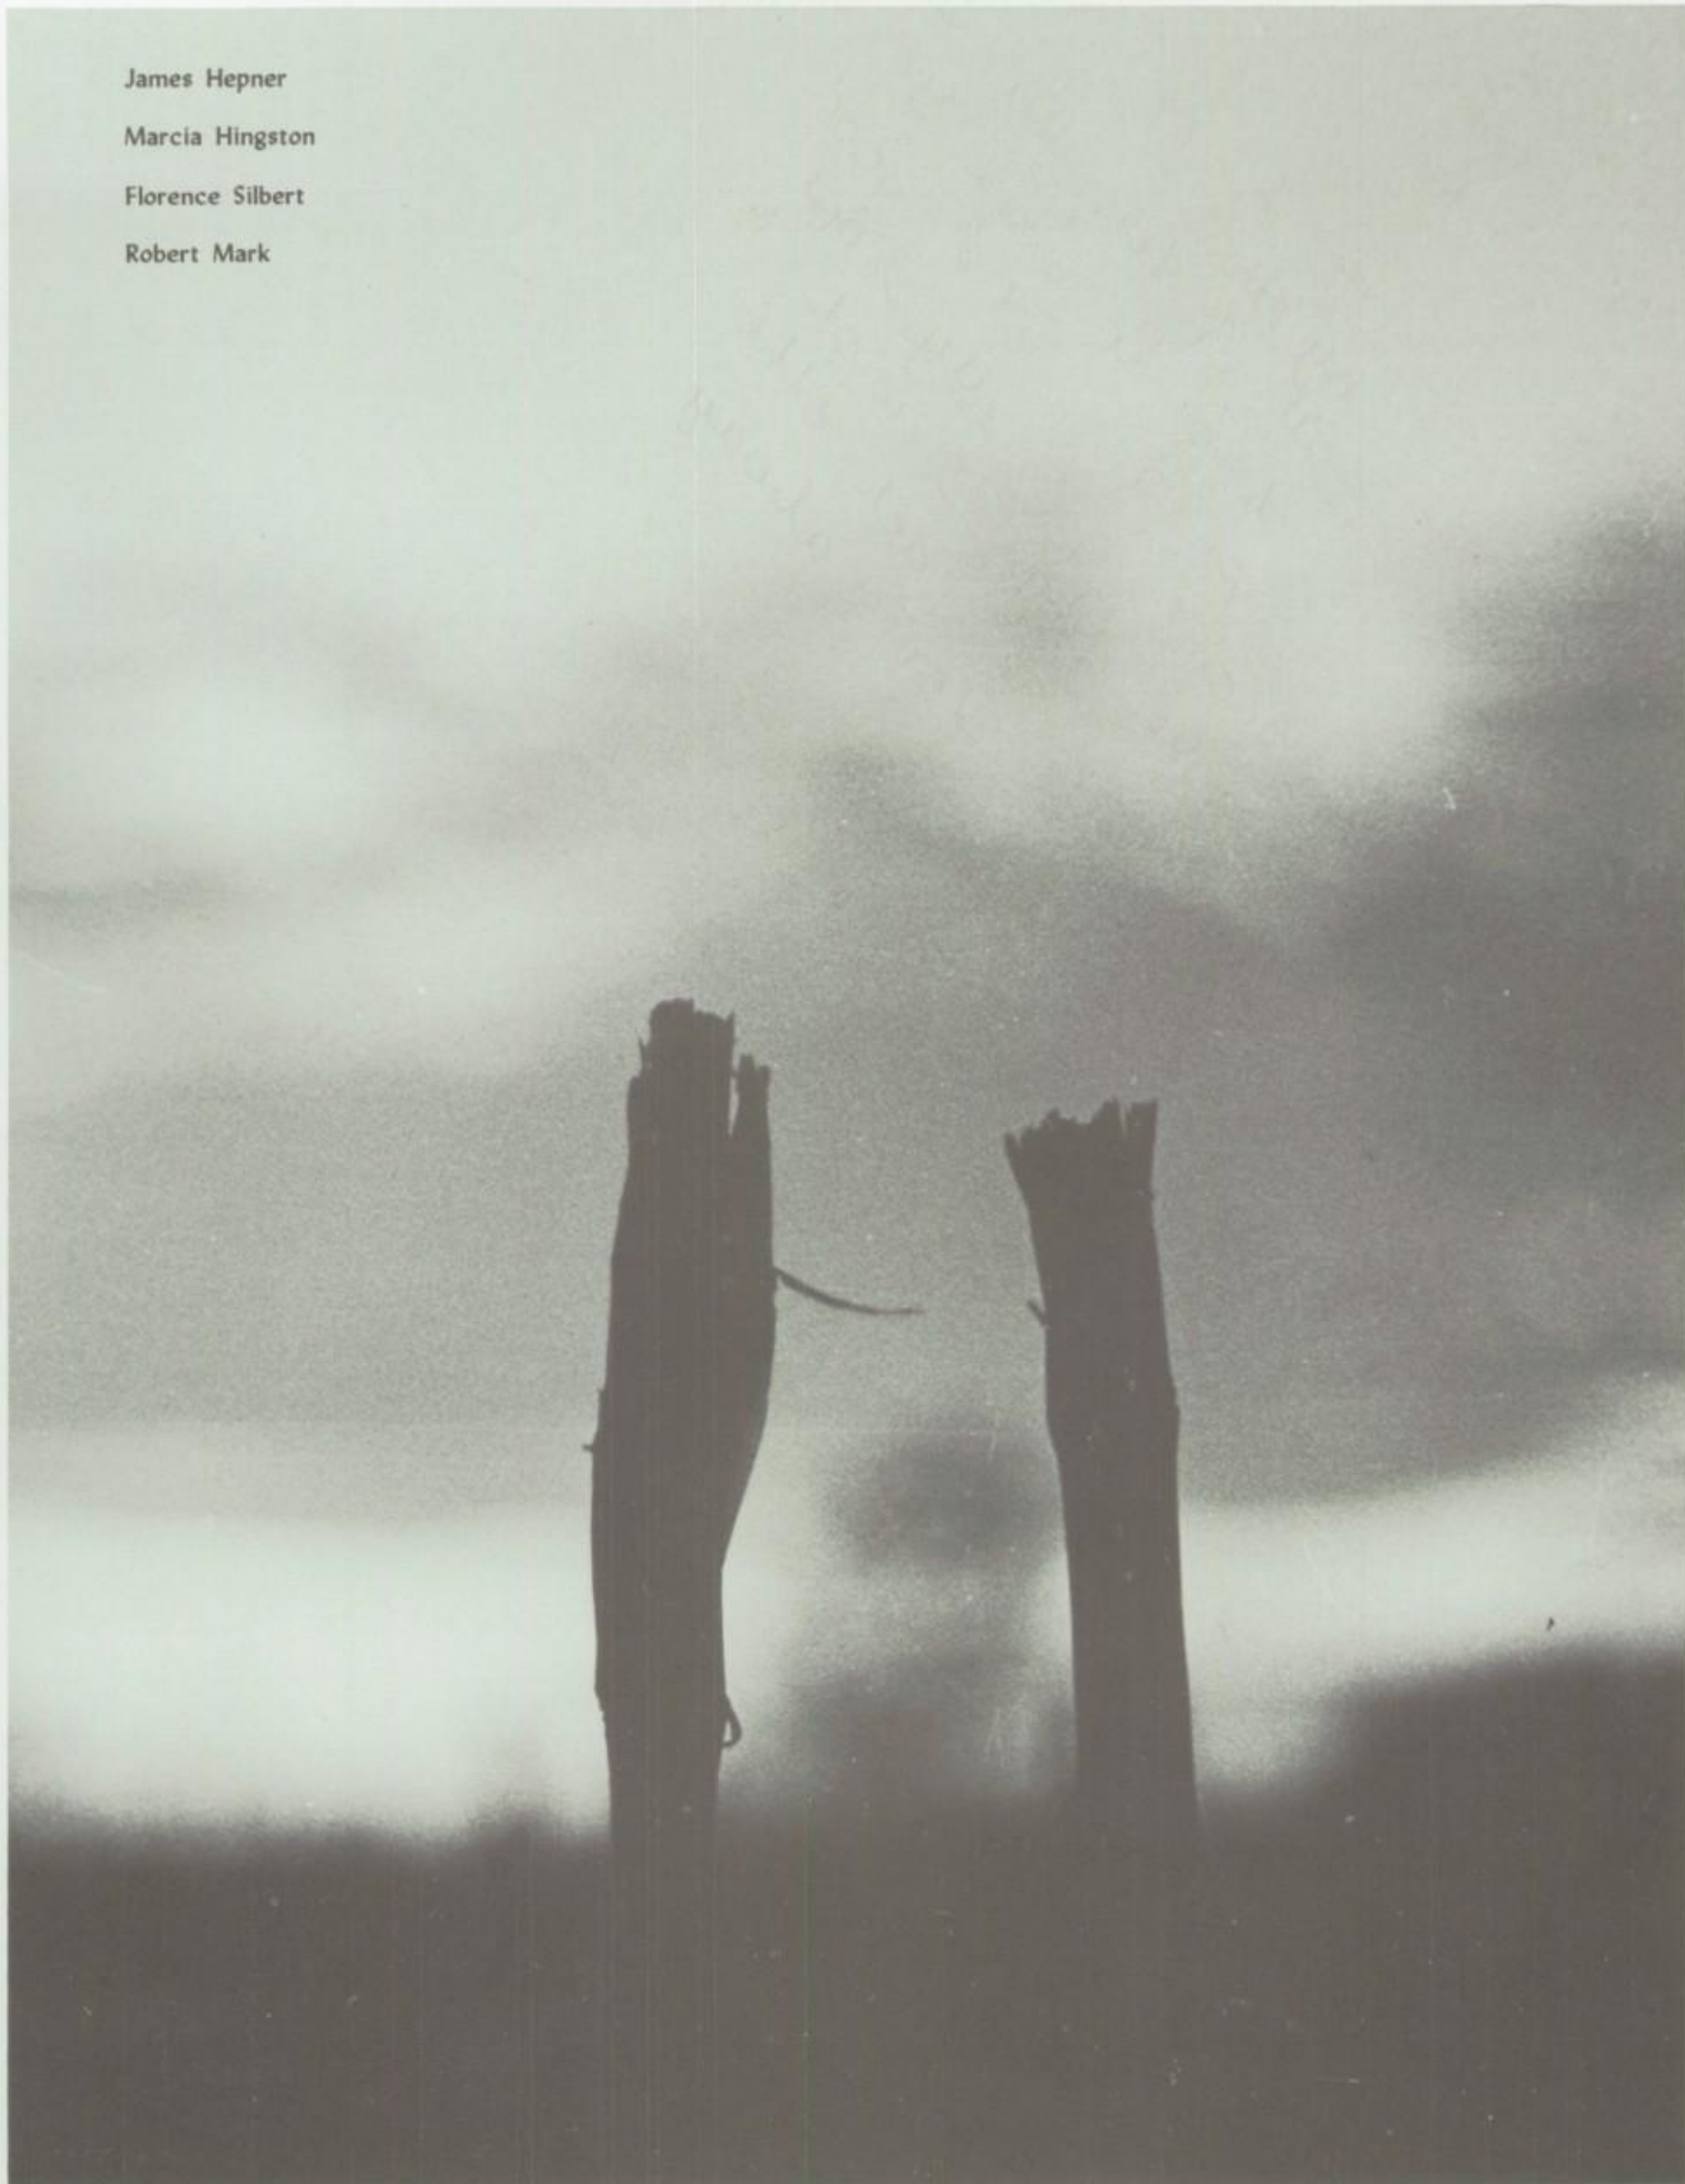

Yet if you should forget me for a while
And afterwards remember, do not grieve:
For if the darkness and corruption leave
A vestige of the thoughts that once I had,
Better by far you should forget and smile
Than that you should remember and be sad.

Barb!
 (I didn't think Americans were that blond.)
 The day when we were standing in the lobby together was a very nice day - because I got to know you.
 You're crazy, funny etc. but I like you.
 I won't forget of all I like you when I leave America, and I hope it's not a goodbye, see you in Sweden soon. I really hope to see best of luck until we see each other again.
 Love always,

Kim Sutton, Ted Heller, Chris Leidy, and Alan Freed at it again.

The Class of 1983 started off its first year at North Penn with the election of officers. Anne Sames was elected President; Jenny Beckett, Vice-President; Barb Alden, Secretary; Sandy Mathur, Treasurer. The class eagerly participated in Spirit Week as well as sponsoring a dance, a movie night, and organizing Secret Admirer's Day. Their sophomore year ended with the election of a new President, Don Striker, and a new Treasurer, Jill Campbell. Jenny Beckett was re-elected Vice-President, and Barb Alden was re-elected Secretary. An end of the year picnic was held at 4th Street Pool.

As Juniors, the class had big plans for its second year at North Penn. Class officers provided stickers for anyone who wanted one on the first day of school that said: "Sophomores, ask me, I'm a JUNIOR," which generated class spirit. The class strongly urged for David Toma to bring his anti-drug program to the district and participated in lollipop sales to raise funds for it. The class sponsored two dances, one after a football game and another with "punk" theme after a basketball game. Secret Admirer's Day was again a huge success for the juniors. A special dance with the band the Unknownze was held in the spring. The Junior Prom, organized by Prom chair-persons Dan Herman and Maryann Detwiler, was held on April 23rd at Indian Valley Country Club with the theme "Always and Forever." A class trip to Dorney Park was scheduled for June as the class looked ahead to being Seniors.

 I'm glad we've been friends for such a long time. Ever since Jr. High. We've lasted 3 long years of ^{together} German. Remember how much G.K. bugged you even though he was totally in Love. We got our licences at the same time over one year late. Well we have to keep in touch after graduation. Good luck in all your endeavors -

KNIGHT CRIER

North Penn's only newspaper is the Knight Crier. It has a small group of dedicated writers which always seem to get the emotions of the students in one way or another. Their stories ranged from the mere simple day things to the radical feelings of the times. Under the advisement of Mrs. Panunto are: Editors-in-Chief- Bernadette Rappold, Mark Wianiewski. Members- Linda Hanna, John Feusner, Judi Rickhill, Steve Ryan, Arvind Srinivasan, Robert Weyant.

SKI CLUB

For the one hundred and fifty members club, this year was a very disappointing one for all of the skiers. Even though the trips were all cancelled, the club organized other activities such as the roller skating party. They also planned to have a club picnic at the end of the school year.

NORTH PENN MARCHING KNIGHTS

The North Penn Marching Knights is one of the major music performing organizations and is annually recognized for its outstanding presentations in competitive and concert performances. This year the Knights were undefeated in Cavalcade competition and concluded the season by retaining the Yankee Conference Championship of the Cavalcade on November 14th at Franklin Field in Philadelphia. In addition to winning the overall championship, the band was awarded top honors in music and general effect. In addition to competitions and appearing at all varsity football games, the Marching Knights appeared as the Honor Band at the New Holland "Spectacle of Bands" Parade, at Veterans Stadium for the Philadelphia Eagles vs. New England Patriots pro-football game, "Snyderama" in Hatfield, Summney Forge shopping center, and the annual Lansdale Mardi Gras Parade. This Spring the Knights Wind Ensemble, and Jazz Band travelled to the 61st Festival of States in St. Petersburg (FLA). Performing 8 times in 7 days, the unit won the National Field Show Championships over 11 other nationally ranked marching organizations, placed 6th in national parade competition, and were 7th in concert. The Marching Knights also performed in Disney World as a part of the 10th anniversary of Disney World. In the field show competition the Knights scored 91.65- the highest score recorded by a NP competitive unit. The Marching Knights were led on the field by band majors Sandy Mahoney and Bill Anders. Band-front officers were Lori Snyder and Sue Huff, while the band officers were Jeff Sadler, Rich Schrader, Chris Saari and Holly Richart.

Barb,

I'm glad you were in German class with me this year (you didn't have much choice)
German with the final was so easy this year
I didn't have to do a report in June and she didn't say anything. Maybe I'll see ya at the pool this summer. Good luck in all your, your friend Neil

P.S. By the way, did you hear the joke about the Polish guy... (only kidding)

How far are the hills
on the other side of town?
should I
tramp right over them,
or walk around?
Do the roads
over there run straight and wide;
or do they waver
split, then divide?
I really don't know
how long it will take,
But it is a trip
I really must make.
-Jill Koster

Barb,

BARB,

I'm glad that we're both Polish although I'm not a pedigree like you (only 50% Polack). Hope that you do something original in your life, and be what you become (don't ask me what it means I just heard it this morning). I hope that you don't wear out your "Solidarity" Button because it's like a part of you. Hope that us Polacks stick together, Lord knows your patriotic. Have a nice life and do well at LaSalle.

P.S. THANK FOR THE QUARTER & ALL OF
THE LIFE SAVERS YOU
OFFERED ME THROUGHTOUT
OUR UNFORGETTABLE 3RD PERIOD W/ DOC.

To the Polish Princess, John (my last name is Burke, but I'm still Polish)

DEAR BARB - what can I say to someone over whom I've been such a bad influence! Bay - it's gonna be weird not being w/ you next year for German & other classes. Dwe so enjoyed us because you're a European like me! Bay, you've been ~~so~~ special. Listen - I can't even begin to copulize what we've been through - Cathers, Collier, Clarke! Hey - I want you to have a good summer, a great fall at Lasalle - you've been a fantastic friend and I plan to keep it that way forever. I really love you a lot, Barb - take very good care of yourself - ~~Wendy~~

Any questions, anywhere?
yes barbera, Remember mr. Vinshi's class. Hope you succeed in whatever you try. good luck
next year,

It has been a sneaking six years since seventh grade at that esteemed institution of higher education. Try to block NPMs from your memory and erase any bit of trivial, meaningless garbage that you might have learned with "FLASH" Amorosi.

Well, take care, and my best wishes to you ~~for~~ your German career.

Please keep in touch; I mean that sincerely.

My Boshon
Dear
Somelhow I can't bring myself to say the standard "Goodbye" forgon of : (a) "Stay as sweet as you are" (b) "Remember all the times we've had together" or
(c) "Goodluck in everything you do."
You know how I feel. Thankyou for all that we shared together. Good-bye in for sale.
All my love,
Amal

Barb,
What can I say?
It's been great! (?)
Never forget the time I left my pocketbook in front of my locker, and you took it home, + I called you had house to make sure you had
it. 11th grade I think)
Well have a great summer,
+ I'll see ya in 5 yrs.

Love + Luck,

Thompson

Barb,
(I finally got your yearbook)
I'm sorry you're not a physical person. I've had to read. I've never forgot we were in your class. I can't make any class I can't it make any class I can't forget we were in Good luck.

Barb,
Well, it's been real.
I can not believe we are finally out. Never forget Doc's class. I would write something in Polish but my grandmother is the only one left in the family that can speak and write Polish. Good luck in the future. Have a great summer.

Keep in touch (584-1870)
